MORGAN TO TAKE APPEAL

Decision in Northern Securities Case Defeat for Hill Interests.

A PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

Main Points at Issue, However, Still Unsettled-What the Judge Says.

ford to-day granted a preliminary injunction in the suit brought by ward H. Harriman, Winslow S. Pierca and others to restrain the proposed prorata distribution of the assets of the Northern Securities Company. This is a defeat for the Hill interests. The opinion is fifty typewritten pages in length.

question as to the title of the Northern Pacific stock, which E. H. Harriman and Winslow S. Pierce put into the combination, and which amounted to about $79,000,000. The contention of the North-$19,000,000. The contention of the Northern Securities Company was that the stock had become the absolute property of that company, and that it was perfectly legal for the Northern Securities Company to carry out the pro rata plan of distribution upon which the company had agreed. Harriman contended that by reason of the corporation's being decared illegal by the United States Supreme Court title had not passed from Harriman and Pierce, and, in consequence, they were entitled to have returned to them the particular stock, which they put into the combination, and which involved control of the Northern Pacific Company.

Main Points Unsettled.

Main Points Unsettled.

The decision of Judge Bradford does not dispose of the main points at issue in the case, which were whether or not harriman and Pierce should have returned to them the stock of the Northern Yacific Company, which they put into the Northern Securities Company, or whether they should have distributed iliem, the stock of both the Northern I acific and the Great Northern Companies on the pro rata basis, provided for by the directors of the Northern Securities Company.

Judge Bradford devotes most of his opinion to the discussion of a legal question as to whether he should grant a preliminary injunction, and he takes the position that as long as there is any doubt in the case and no injury can come to the complainants, a preliminary injunction should be granted. He says juriher that the failure to grant a pre-come to the complainants, a preliminary injunction should be granted. He says jurther that the failure to grant a preliminary injunction would permit the distribution of the stock in the Northern Pacific Company to which Harriman and Pierce claim title, and put the complainants in a position where they would not be able to secure relief to which they would be entitled should the case be decided in their favor on final hearing.

Will Take Appeal.

Representatives of J. P. Morgan and Company and of E. H. Harriman said they did not care to discuss the decision until their attorneys had read it in full.
It was said ut Mr. Morgan's office, however, that an appeal would be taken.

The Care That Prevented a Horror.

A train was running away down) a steer grade on Saluda Mountain in North Carolina. This speed increased with overy foot traveled. The sit-brakes would not work. Trainmer were helpiese, passagers in a state of hopeless

The sir-brakes would not work. Trainmen were helpless, passagers in a state of hopeless for.

Just this moment when the worst was exected the train ran up a short incline and atopped. Yesterday morning in the New York papers, in place of the lists of dead and indired that might have absen, there was the source of how in Marty switch had worked and had saved many lives.

This was a story of precaution. The rail-road company in North Carolina knew of certain dread possibilities on its route, it provided against them, and has reaped in the happy conclusion of a terribly threatening incident the frest fact roycaled about the bost was lack of preparation against the horror then impending. Yet the possibility of what was happening had been demonstrated many times—with what should have been verleating force in the tags of the Seeswanhake, was happening had been demonstrated many times—with what should have been veriasting force in the case of the Secawanhaka. What is the difference in the ducation of passenger-carrying corporation which brings it about that in North Carolina they take care, while in New York they take chances?—New York World, July 2th.

NO HORSE-RACING FOR THIS SENATOR

Bailey Says He Intends to Sell His Stable, Instead of Increasing It.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.) WASHINGTON, D. C., July 15,—Sens-tor Balley arrived here late last night and left for New York to-night to visit his sick son. He stopped over to give attention to his mail, which has accumulated during his attendance on the St. Louis Convention.

Senator Bailey expects to return to Texas soon, but it depends on his son's condition. When asked about the story that he was arranging to run a racing atable next summer, Senator Bailey said: "Please state for me that the story printed in several Texas papers, and in many papers throughout the country, to the effect that I am arranging to race a stable of running horses next year is erroneous. Indeed, it ascribes to ome a purpose exactly the reverse of the que I have in mind; because, instead of buying more horses, it is my intention to sell at least half of those I now have, and I may sell them all."

Its havoc was particularly great in the East, and in this city hundreds of persons were treated at the hospitals, while hundreds of others went to their own physicians.

There are several varieties of the so-called kissing bug, but the one which was most prevalent in this section of the country is known to selence as Reduvildae Melanolestes Picipes.

It is about half an inch long, black in color and files almost as nimb as a mosquito.—North American.
